

House Resolution 1103 (AS PASSED HOUSE AND SENATE)

By: Representatives Coleman of the 97th, Hembree of the 67th, Casas of the 103rd, Jones of the 46th, Maxwell of the 17th, and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Creating the Joint Study Committee on Teacher Training and Certification; and for other 2 purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Georgia's over 100,000 teachers are the cornerstone of the state's public 4 education system; and

5 WHEREAS, because of the importance of providing a quality education to every student, it 6 is critical that teachers be appropriately educated and prepared to serve in classrooms across 7 this state; and

8 WHEREAS, in order to appropriately educate and prepare individuals to become effective 9 and engaging teachers, the teacher education programs that are offered in the public and 10 private universities and colleges in this state must provide strong curricula, courses, and 11 instruction; and

12 WHEREAS, the ongoing certification and education requirements of existing teachers is also 13 a critical component in helping to maintain the level and quality of instruction in our schools; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, the General Assembly believes that it would be beneficial to assess Georgia's 16 teacher training programs and certification process and requirements and their impact on the 17 students in Georgia.

18 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GEORGIA GENERAL ASSEMBLY
19 that there is created the Joint Study Committee on Teacher Training and Certification which 20 shall consist of 16 members as follows:
